

Divorce retreat

Openings remain for a weekend retreat in Belle Plaine for women going through divorce. Daisy Camp was founded by Jennifer Morris of Eden Prairie, who found resources insufficient to guide her through the legal, business and emotional twists and turns of her own divorce. Topics of the three-day retreat, which runs from Friday to April 2, include real estate, mortgages, home equity and refinancing, nutrition, wellness and "dreaming new possibilities."

Cost is $125 for meals and sessions at the AmericInn Lodge and Suites in Belle Plaine; lodging adds another $125. For more information, call Morris at 952-937-8600 or www.daisycampforyou.com.
